Instructions*(Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code)Paperwork Reduction Act Notice

We ask for this information to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. We need it to ensure that taxpayers are complying with these laws and to allow us to figure and collect the right amount of tax. You are required to give us this information.

A. Purpose of Form

Use Form 6252 to report income from the following type of sale if you are not a dealer and are to receive any payment (including payments from sales reported on the installment method prior to 1980) in a tax year after the year of sale:

- A sale of real property.
- A casual sale of personal property, other than inventory.

Use Form 6252 unless you elect not to report the sale on the installment method. If you want to elect out, see the instructions for your Schedule D or Form 4797. If you do not use the installment method, report the sale on your Schedule D or Form 4797.

You need not use this form for year-end stock sales where payment is received in the following year. Instead, report the sale directly on your Schedule D for the year of payment unless you elect out of the installment method by reporting it on Schedule D in the year of sale.

If you sold property placed in service after 12/31/80 on the installment method and you had elected to treat part of the cost as an expense under section 179, the following applies. Taxpayers, other than partnerships, report the deduction you took under section 179 as ordinary income on Form 4797, Part II, line 11 for the year of sale. Partnerships, report it on Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), line 18c. Do not report more than the gain from the sale of this property figured by reducing basis by the section 179 deduction.

Dealers in real or personal property may use the installment method, but should not use this form. Instead they should report the sale directly on their tax return.

B. What Parts to Complete

For the Year of Sale—Complete questions A through E, Part I, and Part II.

For Years After the Year of Sale—Complete questions A through E and Part II, for any year in which you receive a payment from an installment sale.

Related Party Sales—If you sold marketable securities to a related party defined in instruction C, complete the form for every year of the installment agreement, whether or not you received a payment. For a year after the year of sale, complete questions A through E and Part III if you did not receive a payment during the year. (If you received a payment, also complete Part II.) If you sold property other than marketable securities to a related party, complete the form for the year of sale and for 2 years after the year of sale, regardless of whether you received any payments. If during this 2-year period you did not receive a payment, complete questions A

C. Installment Sales to Related Party

A related party is your spouse, child, grandchild, parent, or a related corporation, partnership, estate, or trust.

If one of the exceptions in Part III applies, check the appropriate box and do not complete lines 22 through 29. If you can establish that tax avoidance was not a principal purpose for either disposition, attach an explanation. The following are some examples that are not tax avoidance:

- The second disposition is also an installment sale and the payment terms are equal to or longer than the first installment sale.
- The property sold is not real property or real property improvements, and it is used by the related purchaser as inventory for sale in the ordinary course of conducting a trade or business.
- The second disposition is a charitable contribution but not a bargain sale, and the property is capital-gain type property for which an election under section 170(b)(1)(C)(ii) is not in effect.
- Certain tax-free transfers, certain like-kind exchanges, and in some cases bankruptcy of the related buyer.

D. Sale of Depreciable Property to Related Party

If you sell depreciable property to either your spouse or an 80%-owned entity, installment sale rules do not apply, unless it is established to the satisfaction of the Internal Revenue Service that tax avoidance was not a principal purpose for the sale.

For more information, including single sales of several assets, disposition of installment obligations, like-kind exchanges, and change in selling price, see Publication 537, Installment Sales, and the regulations under section 453.

Line-By-Line Instructions

For purposes of this form, do not include interest or carrying charges received, or unstated interest. For information on unstated interest, see Publication 537.

Line 1—Selling price.—Enter the money, face amount of the installment obligation, and the fair market value of other property, such as the buyer's note, that you received or will receive in exchange for the property sold. Include on line 1 any existing mortgage or other debt the buyer assumes or takes the property subject to.

If there is no stated maximum selling price, such as in a contingent sale, attach a schedule showing the computation of gain, and enter the taxable part on line 19 (and 27 if Part III applies). See the regulations under section 453.

Line 2—Mortgage and other indebtedness.—Enter only mortgages (or other indebtedness) the buyer assumes from the seller or takes the property subject to. Do not include new mortgages the buyer gets from a bank, the seller, or other source.

For information on wrap around

Line 4—Cost or other basis of property sold.—Enter the original cost and other expenses you incurred in buying the property. Add the cost of improvements, etc. and subtract any casualty losses previously allowed. For more information, see Publication 531, Basis of Assets.

For purposes of this form, do not reduce line 4 or increase line 5 by any deduction taken in 1982 or later, under section 179.

Line 5—Depreciation allowed or allowable.—Enter all depreciation or amortization you deducted or should have deducted from the date of purchase until the date of sale.

Line 7—Commissions and other expenses of sale.—Enter sales commissions, advertising expenses, attorney and legal fees, etc., you incurred in selling the property.

Line 14—Gross profit ratio.—Enter the gross profit ratio determined in the year of sale whether or not you filed Form 6252 for that year.

Line 16—Payments received during the year.—Enter all money you received and the fair market value of any property you received in 1983. Include as payments any amount withheld to pay off a mortgage or other debt, such as brokers' and legal fees. Do not include the buyer's note, or any mortgage or other liability assumed by the buyer. If you did not receive any payments in 1983, enter zero.

If an amount was entered on line 24 in prior years, do not include it on this line. Include it, however, on line 18.

Line 18—Payments received in prior years.—Enter all money and the fair market value of property you received before 1983 from the sale.

Lines 20 and 28—Part or all of the gain from this sale may be subject to recapture as ordinary income. See Form 4797, Part III and the instructions to Part IV of Form 4797.

Lines 21 and 29—For trade or business property—Enter this amount on Form 4797, line 3 if the property was held more than one year. For years after the year of sale, if you do not otherwise have to use Form 4797, enter it directly on Schedule D as a long-term capital gain on the line identified as from Form 6252. If the property was held one year or less, enter it on Form 4797, line 12.

For capital assets—Enter this amount on Schedule D, as short-term or long-term gain. Use the lines identified as from Form 6252.

Line 22—If in 1983, the related party sold only part of the property from the original sale, enter the selling price of the part of the property resold. If part was sold in an earlier year and part was sold this year, enter the cumulative selling price.

Dear Mrs. Paletta,

The U. S. Equestrian Team is so very grateful for the horse blanket and carrying case received on August 15, 1983.

The value of the blanket was $90.00, but it sold at our auction for much more than this value.

The Regan's generosity will be remembered for a long time.

Sincerely,

Garianne C. Rubenstein
